STEP 3: Submit the Sign Design Review Application and all required material: as PDF attachments to the online Permit to Erect Sign application OR in-person at City Hall 110 Pleasant Street, 2nd Floor, Malden, MA, 02148

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

FEES: The fee for Sign Design Review is $50 per application. The fee for the Permit to Erect Sign is $100 plus $5 for every $100 value of the sign.

SIGN REQUIREMENTS: All signs in Malden are regulated by the City's Sign Control Ordinance (R.O. 1991 Section 3.35). The ordinance includes requirements for sign type, sign location, sign size, and the number of signs allowed. See R.O. 1991 Sections 3.35.7 through 3.35.10 for regulations on signs requiring permits. The Malden Sign Controls are available at: http://www.cityofmalden.org/sites/default/files/sign_control_ordinance.pdf

SIGNS NOT REQUIRING A PERMIT: Signs not requiring a permit under are not reviewed by the SDRC. If a sign does not require a permit, do not complete this application. See R.O. 1991 Section 3.35.5 for a complete list of signs not requiring a permit.

PROHIBITED SIGNS: Signs expressly prohibited by the Sign Control Ordinance, other City ordinance, or the Massachusetts Building Code will not be approved by the SDRC. See R.O. 1991 Section 3.35.6 for a list of prohibited signs

PROVIDED INFORMATION & ADDITIONAL MATERIALS: All dimensioned plans should include the information necessary to determine the type, number, location, or area, of signs existing and proposed on a property, and the type, number, location or area, of signs allowed on a property. The SDRC reserves the right to request samples of any proposed sign materials, additional plans, photos, or other applicable resources deemed necessary to review a sign in accordance with the City's Sign Control Ordinance.

PORTABLE SIGNS: Portable signs are generally "A-Frame" or "T-Frame" signs not permanently affixed to a building, structure, or the ground and are designed to be transported or moved. The SDRC may issue a sign permit to a portable sign for a minimum of 30 days and a maximum of one year. See R.O. 1991 Section 3.35.8.5 for requirements.

LIMITED DURATION SIGNS: Limited duration signs are signs displayed on private property for more than 30 days but not intended to be permanent or to be displayed for an indefinite period. Most of these signs cannot exceed 20 sq. ft. The SDRC may issue a renewable permit for a limited duration sign for a minimum of 90 days and a maximum of one year. See R.O. 1991 Section 3.35.8.7 for requirements.

TEMPORARY SIGNS: Temporary signs are signs displayed on private property for less than 30 days, no more than twice a year. Temporary banners that identify a new business or advertises a special sale, event, or activity cannot exceed 32 sq. ft. Temporary signs advertising a property for lease/sale cannot exceed 12 sq. ft. If your sign meets the temporary sign requirements, it does not require a permit and you should not complete this application. See R.O. 1991 Section 3.35.8.8 for requirements.

WOODEN SIGNS: Wooden signs are prohibited. Applicants seeking the look of wood should consider the use of high density foam.

ILLUMINATION: At the request of the City of Malden, the owner of/applicant for an illuminated sign shall provide the SDRC a certification from an independent contractor showing compliance with the brightness standards of the Sign Controls. See R.O. 1991 Section 3.35.7.3 for requirements.

SIDEWALK OBSTRUCTION: If you will obstruct the sidewalk while installing a sign you will also need a sidewalk permit from the Department of Public Works, 356 Commercial St, Malden, MA 02148. To obtain a sidewalk permit, you will need a $1 million General Liability Certificate from your insurance company with the City of Malden listed as the holder. The fee for a Sidewalk permit is $75.
